U.N.I.T.Y. The theme of this year's BSU dance is true of this close knit group of METCO seniors.

NEED A LIFT? Jimmy Menzoian gives Amy Schaubert a piggyback ride across the field hockey field.

INCREDIBLE SPIRIT! Brian Helies and Pete DeLea are two upbeat members of the Class of '95. They have shared many laughs over the past four years and are making the most of this one.

NEED A VACATION? These seniors love spending their weekends playing tennis, volleyball, ping-pong, and Nintendo at Club Med's "hot spot"—Kent Spellman's house.

CONFUSED? This group has all the questions, it's looking for the answers.

A Look Ahead
A Look Behind

The Class of '95 has spent the past four years learning, growing, and making memories together. We have faced new challenges and supported one another through the toughest of times. During prom construction, our car washes and many other class activities we grew closer and will never forget the four-year journey we shared. The final steps of this journey will soon be complete and we must prepare ourselves to step beyond the familiar world of Weston High. As we take this step we will look back on our years together and the memories captured in this yearbook, Panorama '95.

HITCHIN' A RIDE. Amy Schaubert and Claire Forgacs get a lift from Lindsey Prickett and Laurel Coppock.

Peter Kung and Toru Bando are ready for their final year at Weston High.

These six seniors girls know how to have fun.

Linsdey Prickett and Josh Winston can't wait to see what their senior year will bring.

Karen Yen smiles for the camera as she looks forward to her last year in high school.

Derek Shann and Jessica Chiungus enjoy a beautiful first day of school and are actually glad to be back.

A STAR BEYOND

"If you are a dreamer, come in,
If you are a dreamer, a wisher,
a liar,
A hop-er, a pray-er, a magic bean
buyer . . .
If you're a pretender, come sit by my fire
For we have some flax-golden tales to spin.
Come in!
Come in!"

OPENING

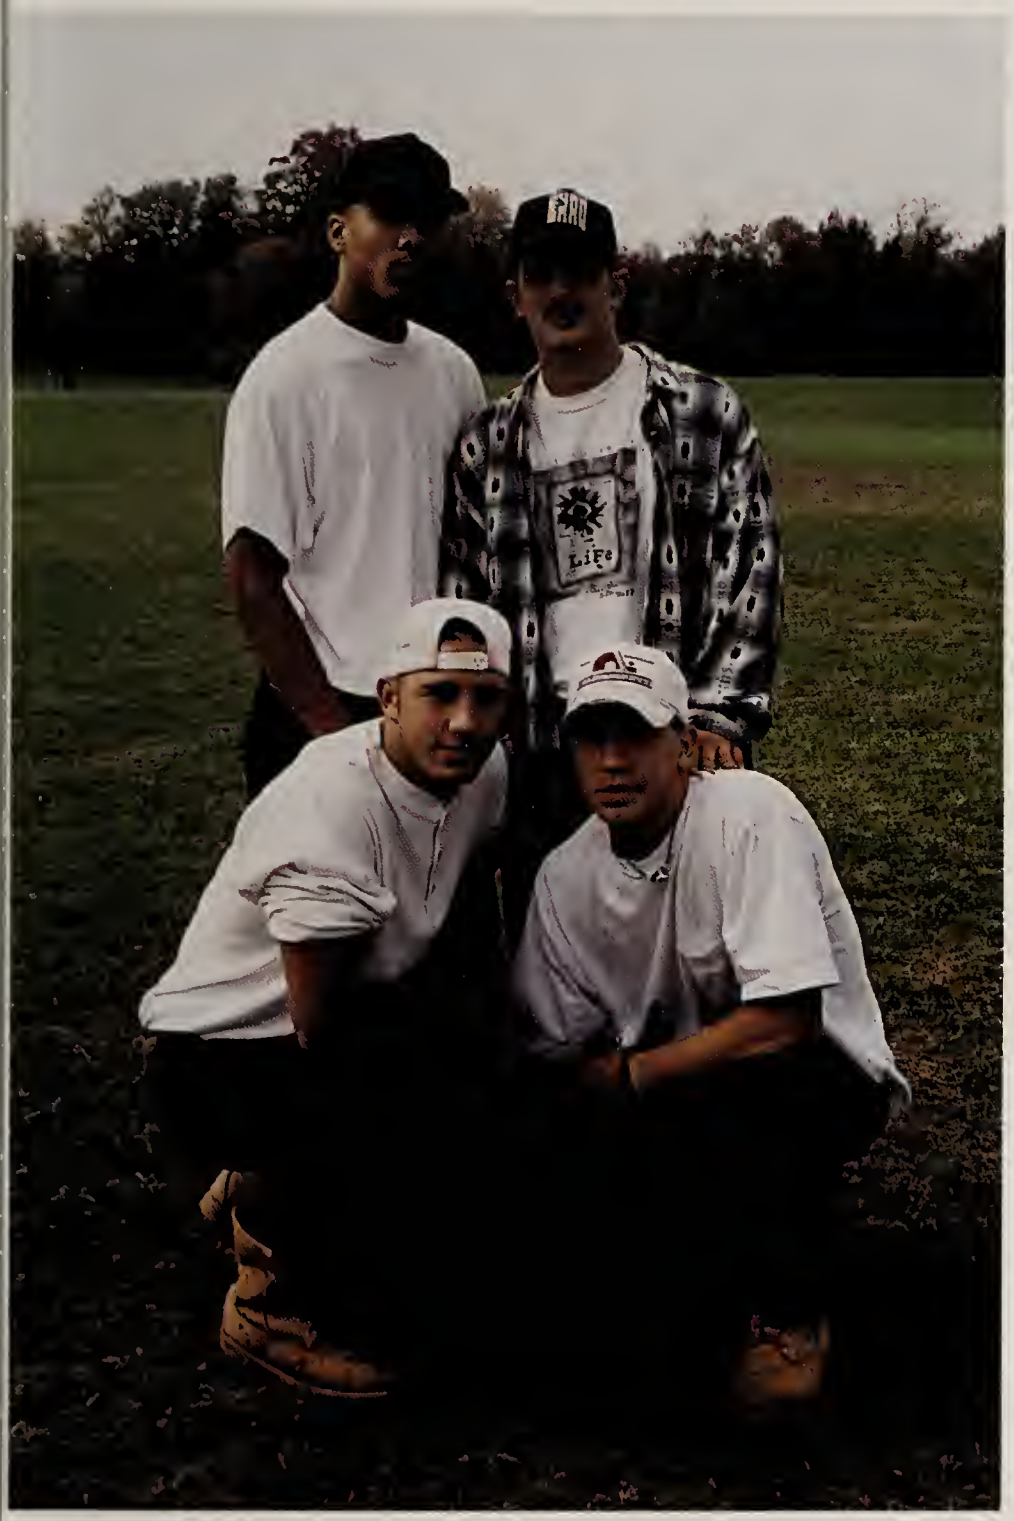
A Step Above

"THIS BRIDGE" — by Shel Silversteen

This bridge will only take you halfway there
To those mysterious lands you long to see:
Through gypsy camps and swirling Arab fairs
And moonlit woods where unicorns run free.
So come and walk awhile with me and share
The twisting trails and wondrous worlds I've known.
But this bridge will only take you halfway there
The last few steps you'll have to take alone.

FRIENDS FOREVER. Joanne Kampoures, Doryn Gelb, Jessica Chiungos and Sonya Cottle give us their best smiles. Being seniors in the Class of '95 gives them much to be happy about.

TOGETHERNESS. Kyra Bateman loves spending time with two of her best friends, Kathleen DeGuzman and Shauna London.



A SUPER LINE-UP. Josh Winston must be honored to be surrounded by this group of smiling senior girls—Judith Klapholz, Kate Ryan, Laurel Coppock, Mahri Elinoff, Aimee Halloran, Stacey Millen, Margaret O'Brien, Jackie Chandler, Liz Freedman, Dana O'Leary, Irene Bassett, Laurie Clark.

HUGS All-AROUND. "Pipes" Greene and Lindsey Prickett have grown closer and become great friends over the past four years.

SMILE GUYS! Tomily Torres, Hector Montalvo, Tony Baldanza and Mike Baldanza show us their serious side.

CELEBRATION TIME. Brian Helies, Liz Freedman and Jana Karp must remember when wearing paper hats at parties was the "thing to do".

ONE WILD PARTY. John Bentley and Kent Spellman show us just how to act when wearing Batman sunglasses.

GIRLS JUST WANNA HAVE FUN. This group had a great time swimming and posing for pictures at Jana Karp's pool party.

FUN WITH FACE PAINT. Chrissy Eisner and Jackie Chandler loved hearts and rainbows when they were little.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY. Justin Lappen makes his birthday wish while Mike Carr, Josh Greene, Andrew Merrill, Gary Merrill and Brett Jackson wait to eat the cake.

"WE'RE OFF!" Anne Leiser and Lori Clark wait together for the bus. They sure look happy to be heading off to school.

Every Step of the Way

From the Whangdoodle play, China Night, Washington D.C., to our years in high school, the Class of 1995 has shared a lot of happy memories together. We will remember all the fun we had as we look forward to graduation.

PLAY BALL. Winsett Charles is excited for the start of the baseball game. He hopes his team will beat their opponents today.

DANCING DUO. It's obvious that dancing school paid off for Laurel Coppock and Chrissy Eisner. They certainly have great form.

WHAT A GROUP. Members of this class have accomplished great things during the past fourteen years. Who would have guessed that Kent Spellman would one day be co-president of the High School student body?

SHOUT IT OUT. Even in nursery school, Kent Spellman wanted to be heard. He and Amy Schaubert are enjoying a day at a pond, feeding the ducks.

CUTE AS CAN BE. Stacey Millen and Dana O'Leary still have these same great smiles.

SOCCER STUDS. Mike Wysocki, Kent Spellman and Erik Gleason attended the same soccer camp throughout their careers together.

LUNCH BREAK. Mike Wysocki and Joey Guzzi pause for a picture before opening their bags on the 8th grade field trip to George's Island.

"LOLLIPOP, LOLLIPOP." Jackie Chandler and Stephanie Hablow enjoy a treat after spending a fall day outside.

WE'VE SEEN IT ALL. Stacey Millen, Chrissy Eisner, Amy Schaubert, Irene Bassett and Sarah Heine have many memories from the thirteen years they've spent together.

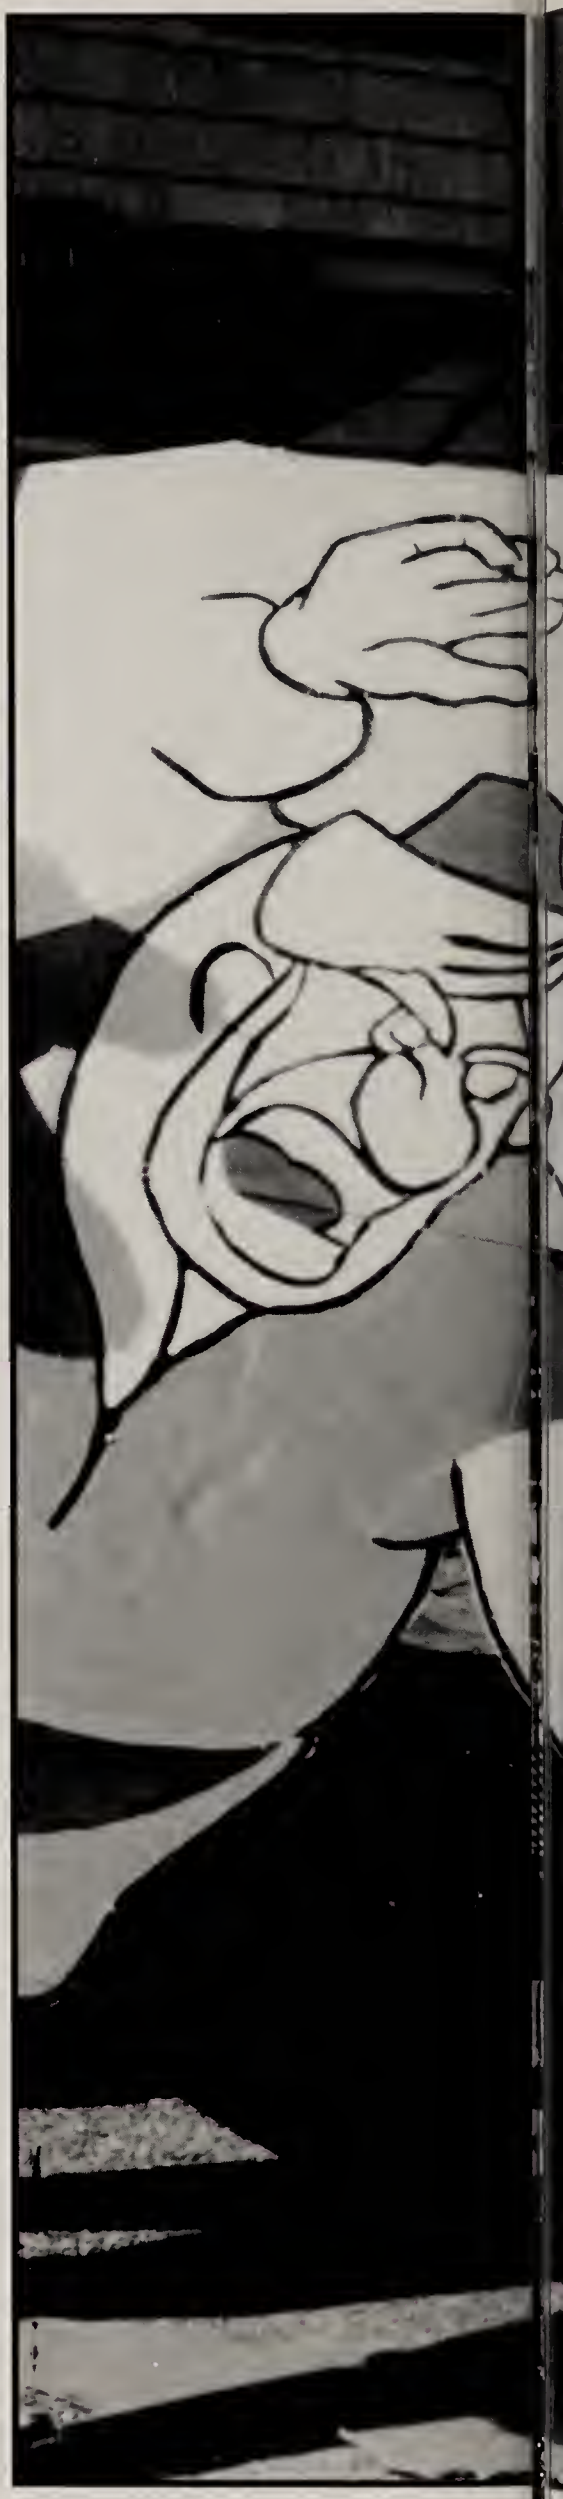
"Finish What You Start"

As members of the Class of '95 , we've spent as much of our lives together as we can remember. We've argued, made up, and bonded with each other. We've taught each other, we've learned from each other and we've shaped each other's lives.

When graduation separates us we will all take with us the memories of our thirteen years together, of our childhood spent together. Though we've struggled along through the years with a reputation that was less than flattering, we've proved the critics wrong. Of the many things we've done "right", we have finished what we started. We've done it all, seen it all and been through it all together. From five year olds who were the kindergartners of Country School in 1982, we have become the seniors of Weston High in 1995. Saying good-bye to companions of thirteen years can be extremely difficult, but we will not say good-bye. We will say, "I'll never forget you."

GOOD WORK GIRLS! Kathleen de Guzman and Jana Karp spent many nights at the Town Hall helping to paint the Aladdin characters that decorated the stairway walls.

A HELPING HAND. Crystal Theall begins work on one of the many posters that made "Arabian Nights" incredibly festive.



TIME TO PARTY. Kyra Bateman, Mike Wysocki and Shauna London are happy that prom construction is almost finished. They enjoyed decorating and found that their hard work paid off on prom night.

BONDING TIME. Doryn Gelb and Joanne Kampoures take a short break during the last and busiest day of prom construction.

The Class of '95 had the chance to get to know each other better while they worked to transform the Town Hall into an Arabian Night scene. They worked really hard and proved that they could pull together as a class and have lots of fun at the same time. The prom looked fabulous and was worth all the work.

All-Out Effort

CHECK THIS OUT. Tony Baldanza shows off a cardboard cut-out he worked hard to create.

GREAT JOB, JACK! Jack Ryan helps to make the cobra that adorned the stairway at the Town Hall.

SURPRISE. Chrissy Eisner and her prom date are caught by the camera as they step out of their limo at the Town Hall.

ALL DRESSED UP AND READY TO GO. Eleanor Brooks and Josh Winston pose for a picture at Chrissy Eisner's house.

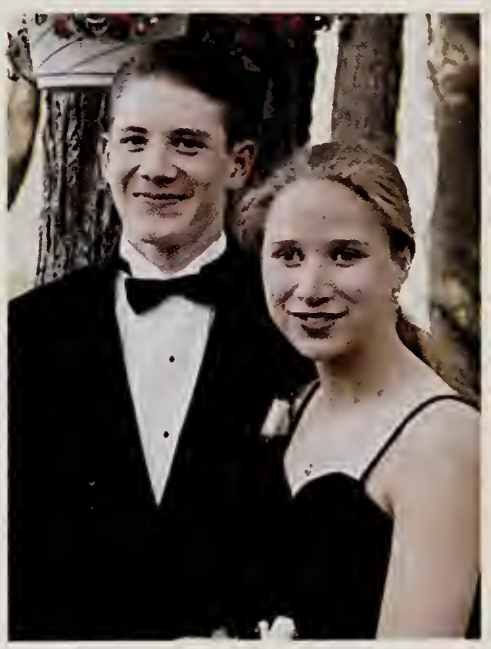
THEY'VE GOT STYLE. Shauna London and Kyra Bateman are ready to dance the night away at the "Arabian Night " Junior Prom

Fancy Footwork

The Class of '95 Junior Prom was a smashing success. Prom Queen Chrissy Eisner, along with with Crystal Theall and Dana O'Leary, spent many arduous hours planning, coordinating, and constructing the elaborate prom scene. The Juniors and Seniors danced the night away to the sounds of Madonna, Ace of Bace, and Billy Joel, creating a night that combined an Arabian mystique with a real American party! Every member of the Class of '95 helped to make the prom a blast. Thanks to all.

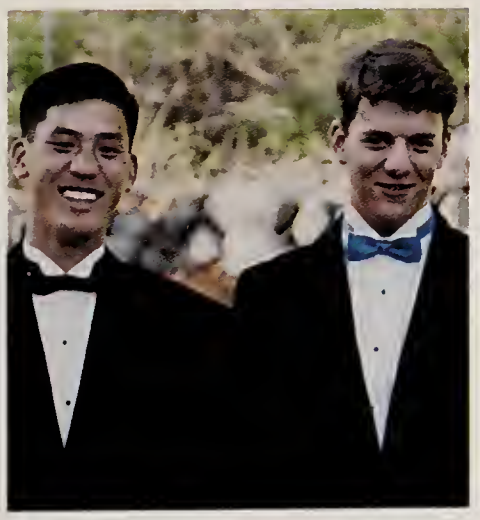
LUCKY GIRL. Laurel Coppock had the honor of attending the prom with the only guy dressed in an all white tuxedo, Brian Helies.

LOOKING' SHARP. Jeff Garret, Chris Jenkins, Derek Shann, Jimmy Menzoian, Mike Carr and Jon Shumaker are dressed and ready.



WHAT A PAIR! Mike Wysocki and Shauna London are all smiles as they begin the night they've been anticipating.

FULL OF ANTICIPATION. This group can't wait to step into their limo and spend time at the prom they worked so hard to produce.



TWO CLASSY GENTLEMEN. Pete Kung and Kent Spellman sure look a lot different in tuxedos.

TOO MANY CAMERAS. Jackie Chandler, Dana O'Leary, Margaret O'Brien, Kate Ryan and Judith Klapholz didn't know where to look at this photo session.

Fun Weekends

Nobody knew how to have more fun, than the Class of '95! There were movies, dances and b–ball games. There were class trips, road trips and Route 9. There were Tecmo bowls, concerts and plays. There were parties, dates and bonfires. But the best part of our weekends was just being together! They went by way too fast!

WHERE TO GO? Margaret O'Brien and Judith Klapholz search for a place to sit at a crowded night soccer game.

T.G.I.F. Alison Taff, Brian Coburn and Emily Lu are excited that the weekend has begun.

A GREAT GAME. Kate Davies and Laurie Tucker enjoy spending time together outside of school. Tonight they show their support for the Wildcats at a night game.

"AND THE WINNER IS. . ." Kent Spellman is determined to beat Trevor Graham this time. Both Kent and Trevor love playing Nintendo, football and soccer.

A NEW SPORT. Shauna London and Margaret O'Brien are ready for their first roller hockey game.

WHAT A DAY. Alex Becker, Trevor Graham, Kent Spellman and Pete Kung spend this Sunday afternoon tossing a football while enjoying one of the last days of warm weather.

PARTY TIME. Josh Winston, Judith Klapholz, Jackie Chandler, Dana O'Leary and Pete Kung hang out at Mike Wysocki's house.

GETTING DOWN TO BUSINESS. Toru Bando and Peter Kung must have cleaned out their closets to find the items for these crazy costumes.

SAVING THE DAY. Superdog Elise Estes and fellow helper, Allison Taff, dressed in costume helped make Halloween at Weston High a super day.

ROSY CHEEKS, BRIGHT SMILES. Alaina Giampapa and Jenny Parker are Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee. Their outfits could have easily won the cutest costume award.

MASK MANIA. Boy are we glad our vice-principal, Mr. Desaulniers doesn't look like this every day! He certainly picked a scarier costume than Mrs. Kinsman or Mrs. Schuler did.

TOUGH GUYS. Kent Spellman, a jedi master, proves his sword is more powerful than muscle-man Mr. Beevers. Mr. Beevers was one of the faculty winners for best costume.

CURLY TOP. Who knows where Pete DeLea found this attractive wig hat, but it definitely "made" his Halloween costume.

Watch Your Step

Witches, crayons, a fortune teller,and a chicken were just a few of the costumes worn to school on Halloween. The Student Council made this holiday more festive by decorating the cafeteria with streamers and spooky paraphernalia and by showing the movies "Aliens" and "Cape Fear". Candy was given to all students at the end of the day. Winners of the "best-costume" contest were Mr. Beevers and Mrs. Cottle, Chris Buss and Vicki Molinelli. Thanks to everyone who helped make Halloween a great day .

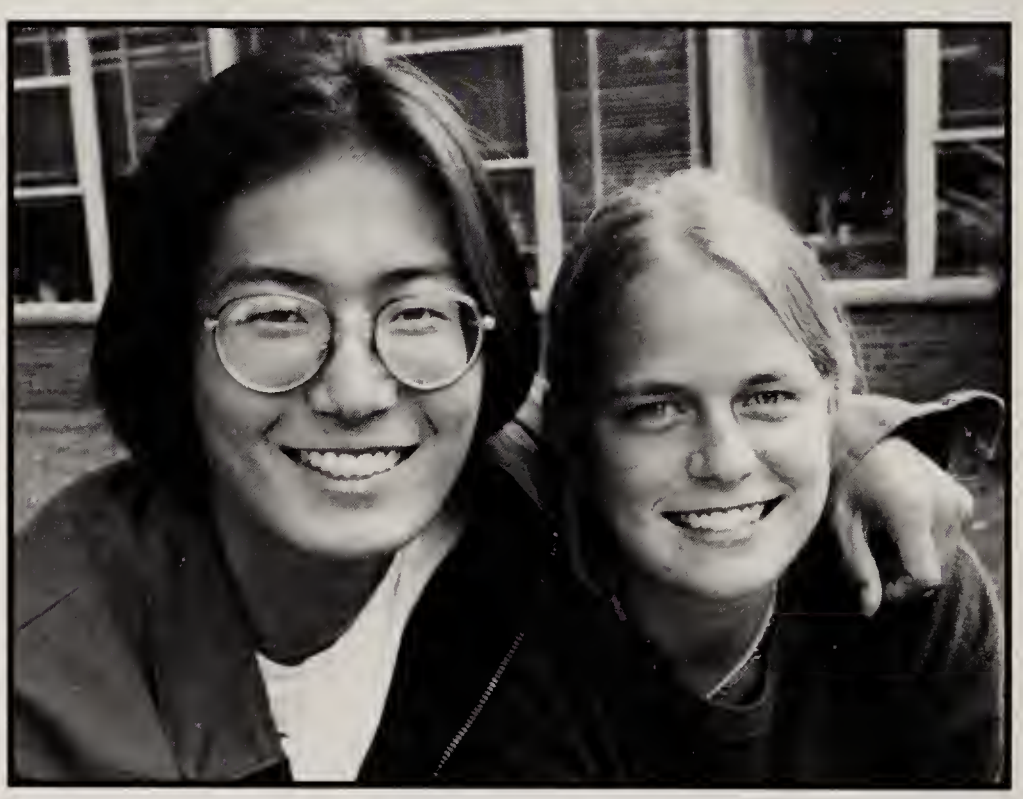
NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK. Freshmen Lauren Klapholz, Taylor Jefferson, Julie Zisson, Kirsten Walpert, and Emily Athas take a break during the barbecue lunch prepared by the Student Council.

LAID BACK. Ed Ma and Nick Forte didn't seem to be too worried on the first day of their sophomore year.

NEW FACES. Freshmen Selena Coppock and Jenny Kendall seem to adjust to WHS pretty quickly.

WHAT A GREAT GROUP! They all had a great time eating, listening to music and, yes, posing for pictures at the first day BBQ.

SAYING GOODBYE TO A FRIEND. Lori Clark spends time with junior David Markson before he leaves for a year in Rombas, France.



Thanks to the efforts of the Student Council, the first day BBQ lunch was a great success. While a few students weren't too excited to return this fall, most looked happy to begin the new school year. Short classes combined with a long lunch break, music and volleyball helped make adjusting to a new routine a little easier.

Back on Track

SENIORS AT LAST. Lakersia Cash, Mike Carr and Heather DeAllie are enjoying spending time together on the first day of their senior year.

ONE HAPPY GUY. Shariff Rudolph is excited for the start of his last year at Weston High. We'll miss you Class of '95.

THE PLACE TO BE. Trevor Graham and Josh Winston enjoy a Friday night football game. They love having the lights on Procter Field and appreciate the hard work of co-presidents, Kent Spellman and Brendan Johnson.

LOYAL FANS. Dave Menachery and Carlos Molinelli, both members of the boys soccer team, show their support for the girls team during a game against Lincoln-Sudbury.

ALL SMILES. Margaret O'Brien and Allison Taff attended many night games this year. They hope to see a Wildcat win this October night.

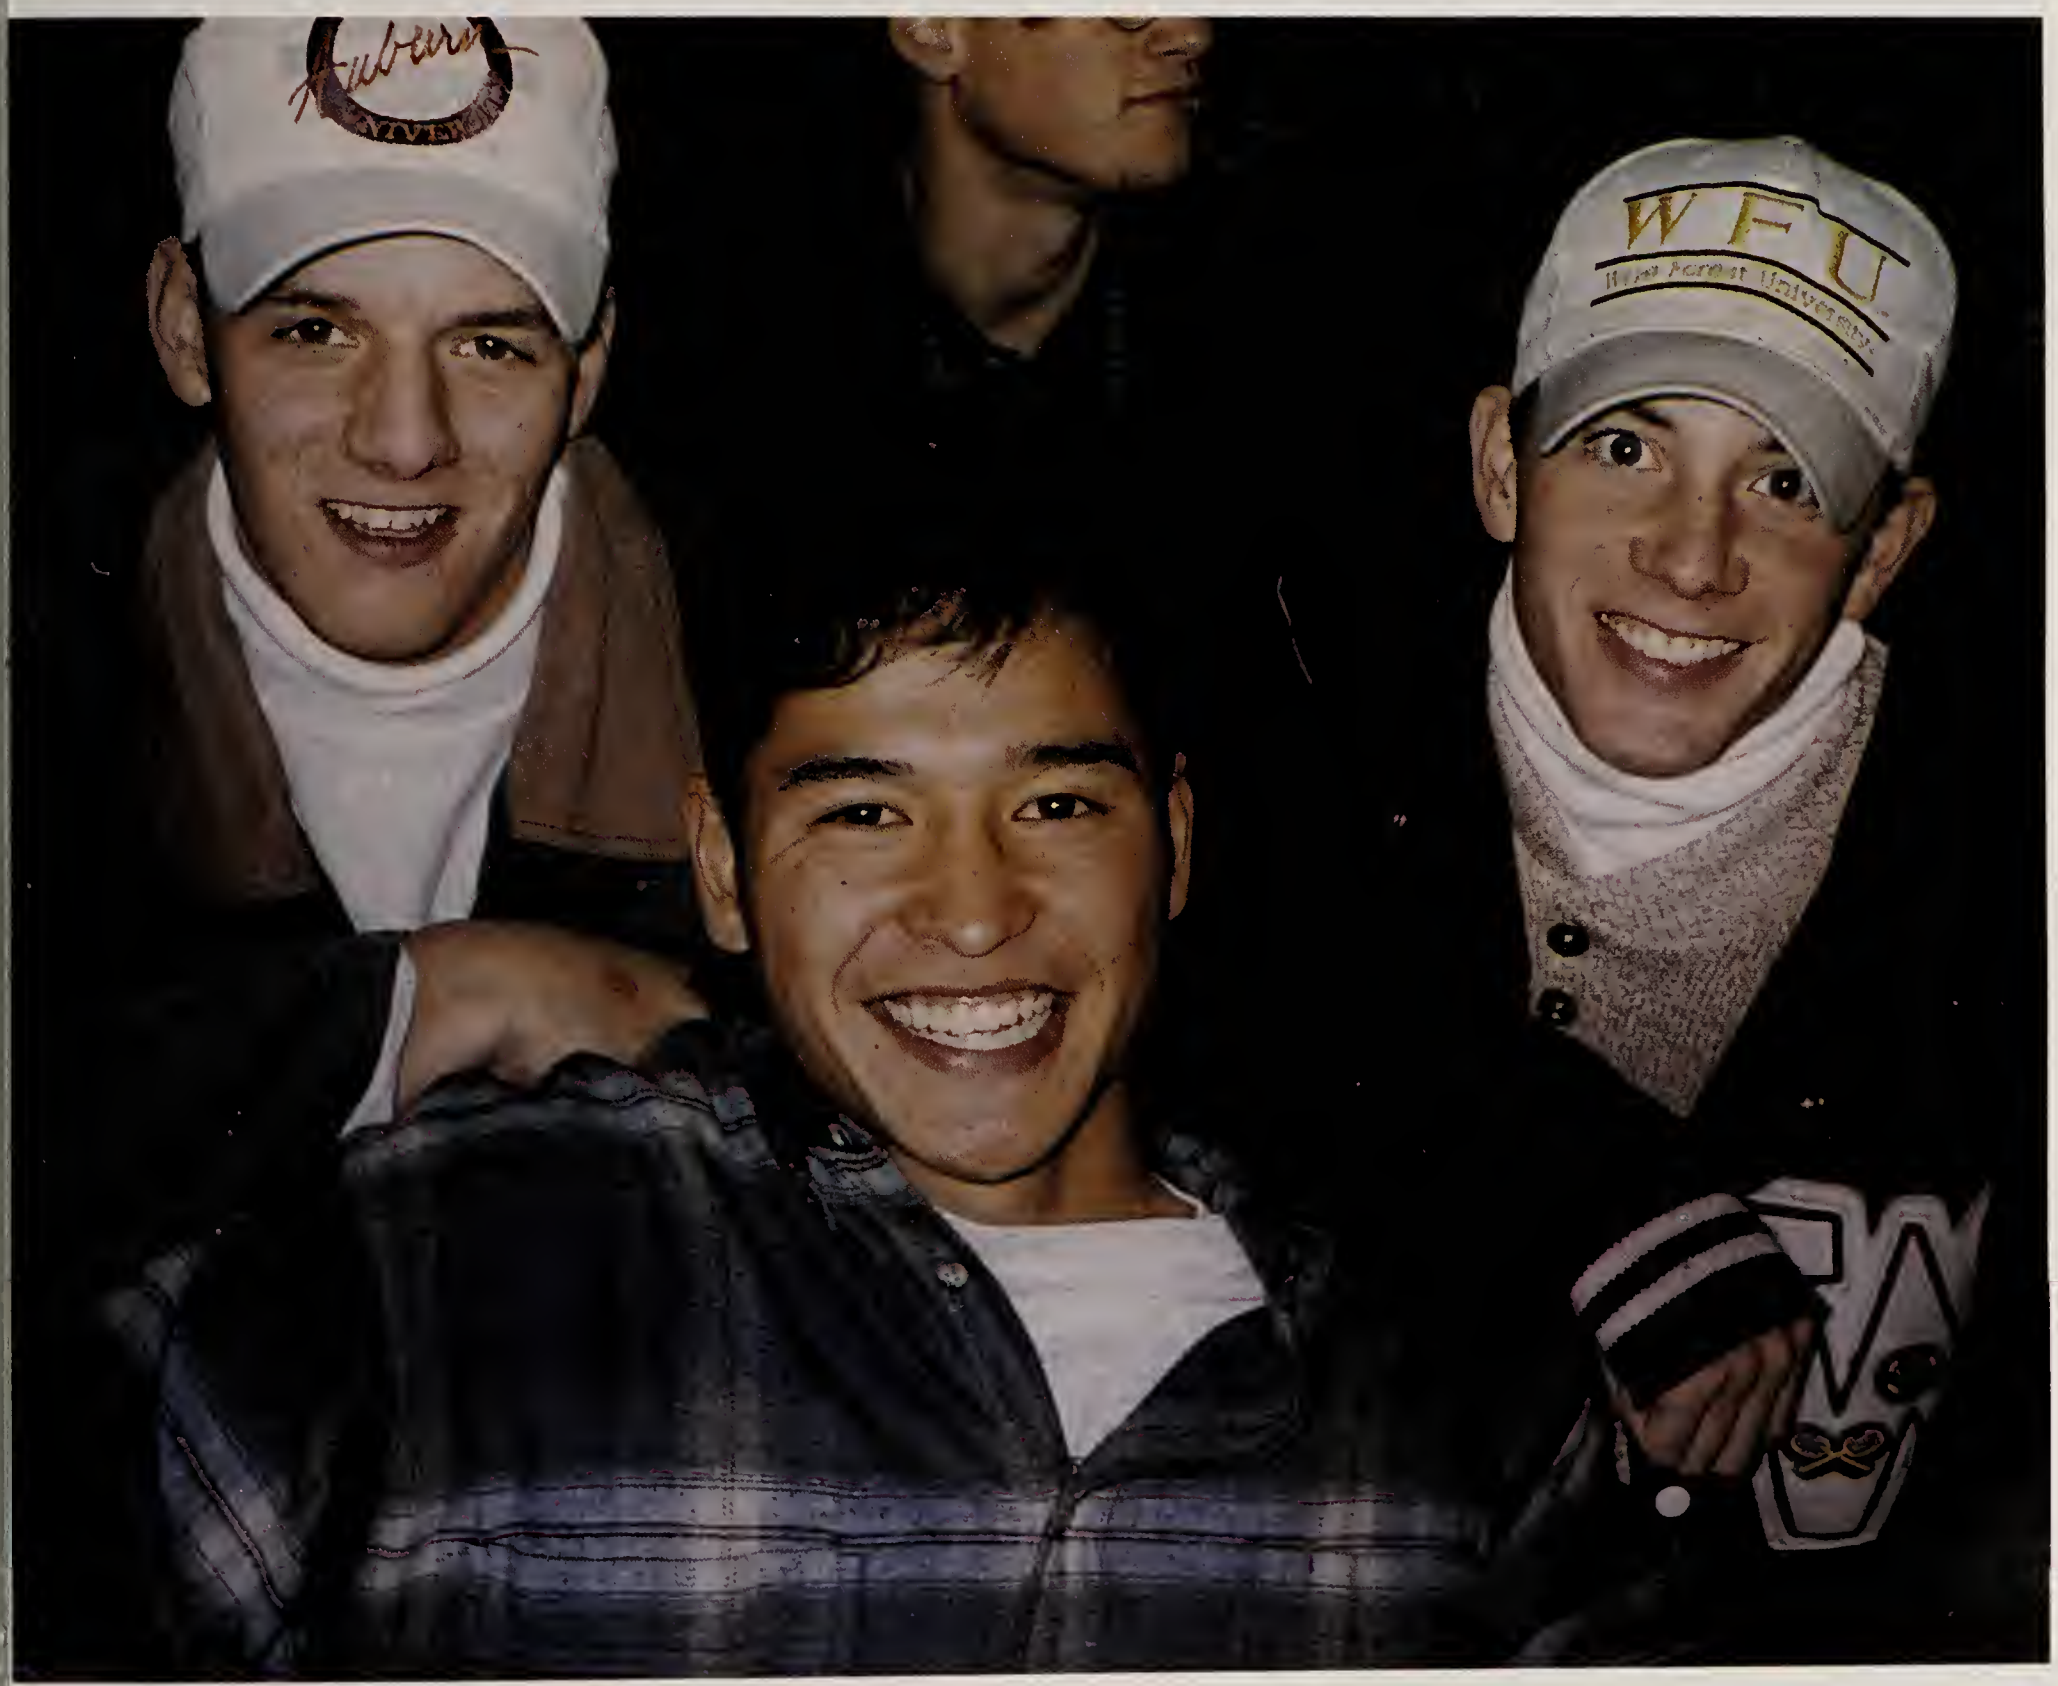
WANNA BUY A PIN? Anya Lakner and Emily Lu are trying to raise money for the junior class by selling wildcat pins to the fans at the boys soccer game.

TAKE IT AWAY. Tight end, Tony Baldanza sprints down the field, searching for a teammate to pass the ball to.

ENJOYING NIGHT GAMES are Kent Spellman, Toru Bando and Mike Wysocki.

Lighting the Way

Through the efforts of Student Body Co-Presidents Kent Spellman and Brendan Johnson, students were able to enjoy night athletic events for the first time in the school's history. The light were installed at John Proctor Field and students, faculty and the Weston community were treated to some great games. School spirit and support for Weston's teams has never been better and we look forward to watching night games for years to come.



WHAT A NIGHT. Mr. Nield, Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Prickett had a great time watching the seniors dance the night away at the Senior Holiday Party.

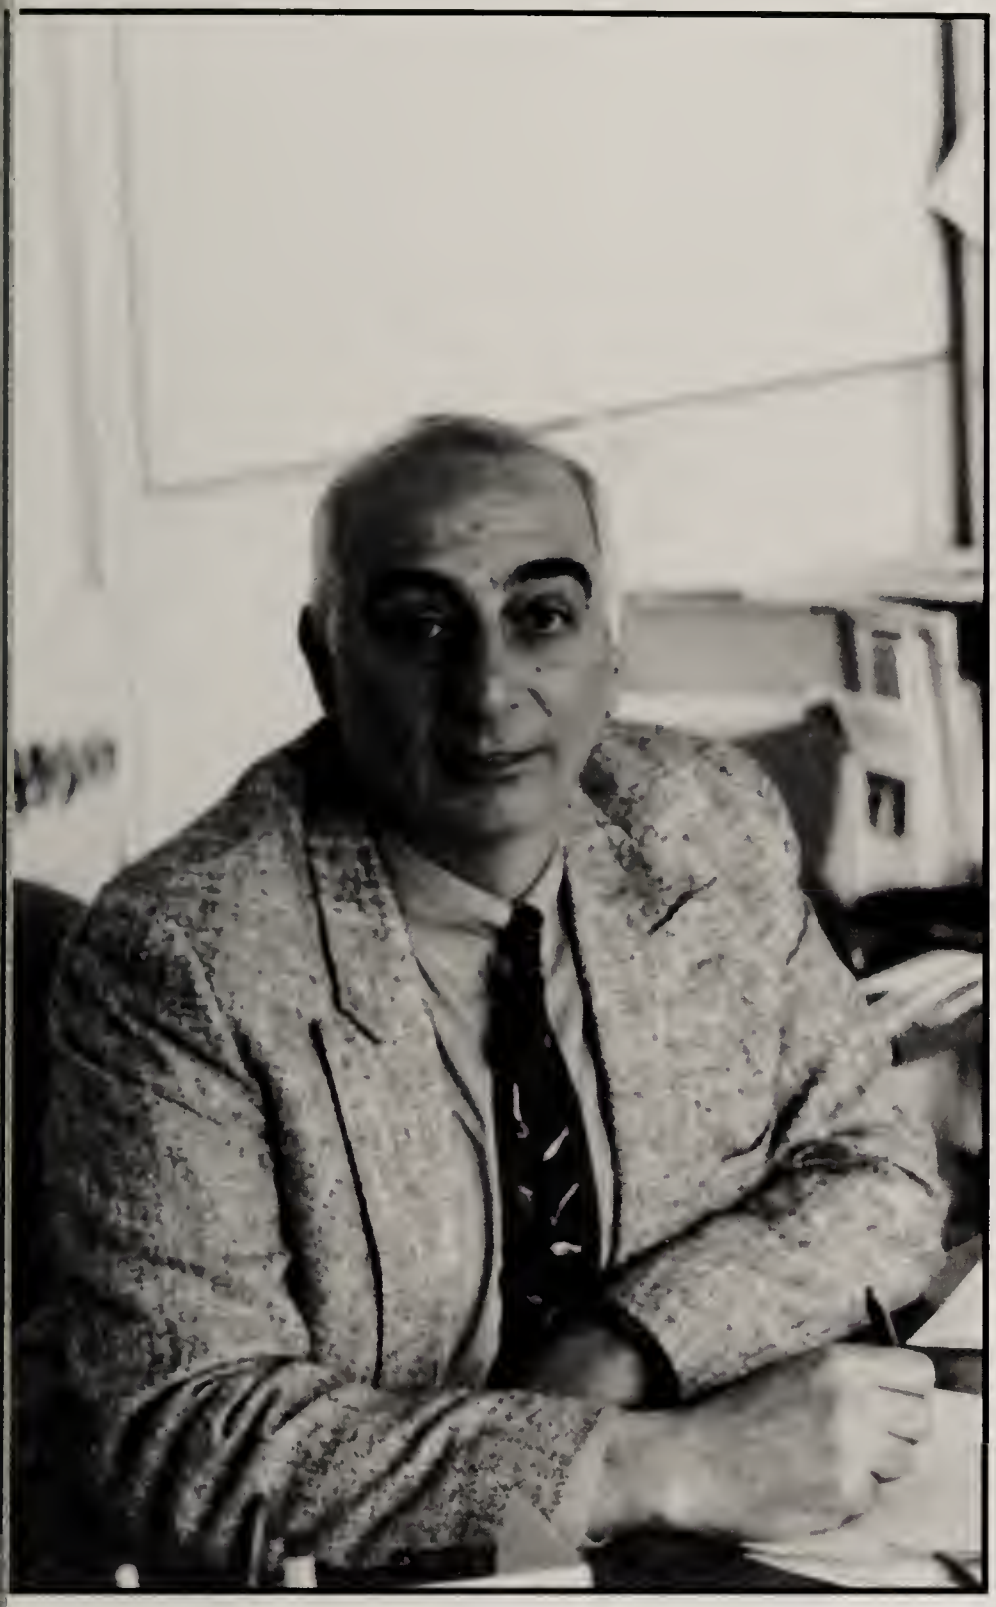
Leading the Way

Through four years they've been there for us, managing refreshment sales, chaperoning trips to Spooky World and Six Flags, organizing the prom, the auction— giving us 101 percent of their time. They've guided us through times when we weren't sure of the right things to do and celebrated our accomplishments as well. And so it is to Mr. Nield, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Schaubert, Mrs. Prickett and Mrs. Carr that the Class of 95 gives a big thank you, for a not so easy job, very well done!

SENIOR CLASS ADVISORS AND OFFICERS. Ania Busza, Josh Winston, Karen Yen, Dara Bourne, Kate Ryan, Mr. Nield, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Prickett, Mrs. Carr, and Mrs. Schaubert.



PRESENTING WESTON'S NEW PRINCIPAL. Welcome to Weston High School, Mr. DeSimone!.

A WARM WELCOME. Kevin Bray welcomes Mr. DeSimone on the first day of school.

WHAT'S SO FUNNY? Kathy Bourinot shares a good laugh with our principal, Mr. DeSimone.

Our New Leader

Mr. DeSimone has brought a lively spirit and lessons of respect for the student body and faculty to our school. During his first year in Weston he has greatly improved the school and has interacted with the community in a very positive way. We appreciate what Mr. DeSimone has already done to enrich our school. We're glad to have you as our new principal Mr. DeSimone.

SISTERLY LOVE. Karen and Liz Kraft are very good examples.

TIMES TWO. Katie and Ananda Forbes-Maguire are twin sisters who enjoy many of the same activities and hanging out together.

A FRESH START. Siblings Carlos and Vicki Molinelli moved from Argentina to Weston this past year. Both played soccer and have been great additions to their respective classes.

"IT'S ALL RELATIVE." Siblings Jack and Katie Ryan are Aimee and Mike Halloran's cousins. These four are great friends and will certainly miss their "other-half" next year.

SIBLING RIVALRY AT ITS BEST. Kate Ryan, Laurel Coppock and Judith Klapholz show us how they really feel about their younger sisters, Meredith, Selena and Lauren.

LEAN ON ME. Senior Alex Kendall has shown his sister, Jenny, the ways of Weston High this year. She'll definitely have all the answers for the incoming freshmen.

In Our Footsteps

Despite the ceaseless fights, the constant bickering and even jealousy, siblings always love each other. The bad times are replaced by memories of a life shared from the beginning. High school gives siblings an opportunity to get away from family, and, in the long run, become closer.

It gives siblings a chance to share laughter and a lifetime of memories!

"The bond that links your true family is not one of blood,but of respect and joy in each other's life ."
—Richard Bach

Remember to think and question, and the world is yours. If you forget, you lose your identity.
Do not limit yourself to what you know,
For there is always more to be learned by escaping the safety of your world and diving headfirst into the unknown.

I thank Weston and condemn it in one breath.
The parts of me that it has nurtured, and those that it has destroyed make me who I am
Those who were, what once was is gone.
The void between us is easier to see now.
Those who are—I Love you Forever!
Freedom is waiting and the choices are mine.

La chose la plus importante dans la vie, ce sont les reves. Et quand on peut les realiser, il ne faut pas hesiter, mais plutot foncer! ! ! ! ! . . .
It was a dream for a so long time, now it is the reality, it is wonderful!
Thanks to the Weston–Rombas Afiliation, to all my host families: I had a very good time, I will never forget! People I met in Weston, students, teachers I have learned a lot with you.
To all my friends, thank you so much. . You are a big part of the best year of my life. I will never forget you, I will miss you. . .
Cette annee a ete (et sera) l'experience la plus enrichissante de ma vie.
Papa, Maman, Dilou merci pour tout ce que vous avez fait pour moi.

Rio, Buenos Aires, Weston...so many people, only 19 lines. There are only three corners in my world. You've all taught me what Life's all about: enjoying the present—we can't touch the past, the future will always be there. Live, experience, explore. Most importantly: question what you know—there's always some wrong to what is right.

PEOPLE

Junior CLASS

Next year we'll be seniors, and we consider that a definite "up".

The Junior Class of 1996 enjoyed a very active and successful year led by class officers Joe Scheier-Dolberg, Jeff Levine, Emily Lu, Leigh Nolan and Anya Lakner. There were numerous events on the class agenda and some we enjoyed more than other. We agreed on the following "ups" and "downs":

UPS

1. Next year we'll be seniors.
2. Class trip to Thompson Island on a gorgeous day in October.
3. Mr. Walker's English classes.
4. The most stupendous prom "Camelot."
5. Our Auction in February led by co-chairpersons Judy Korik and Jason Reese; the theme was Mardi Gras.
6. Getting our licenses!
7. Making things explode in chem.
8. Eating lunch and hanging out on the radiator.

DOWNS

1. We still have to live through our senior year.
2. Taking the PSAT's in October.
3. Friday vocab quizzes.
4. The overload of work.
5. Taking the SAT's in May
6. Going to all those long Driver's Ed classes
7. Worrying about whether we're going to have senior privileges next year.

THEIR FaVORITE PLACE. During frees (we hope), Juniors Julie Diffenbach, Kelly Johnson, Marci Jaye, Elysha Mc Allister, Matt Flaherty and Kirk Grant relax by the window in the Caf.

HE'S BACK AGAIN. Matt Flaherty is back in his favorite spot.

WORKING ON THE YEARBOOK. Lisa Benjamin, Laurie Tucke, Kiran Ganda and Jess Renna pause for a picture in the Yearbook Office. They'll always be good friends.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS AND ADVISORS: Mrs. Noel Estes, Mrs. Alice Davies, Anya Lakner, Leigh Nolan, Joe Scheier-Dolberg, Emily Lu, Mrs. Janet Kresl-Moffat, Jeff Levine and Mr. Bob Walker.

Sophs CLASS

We're not on the bottom rung of the ladder any more and that's a great feeling

The Class of 1997 is moving on up in the high school, as we are no longer the lowly freshman. We have had a superb sophomore year. Coming back to school in the fall, we were ready to get busy and do our work. Planning class trips and our Semi-formal Dance kept us occupied, but we still found time to keep up with our school work and participate in after school activities.

The fall was an exciting time. Most members of our class attended many of the night games–whether it was playing in them or cheering on our teams and really enjoyed watching the games under the lights—a first for the high school.

In late October, we journeyed to Spooky World for our first class trip as sophomores. Soon after that we began planning for our semiformal which turned out to be very successful.

This year the class of 1997 was determined not to fall into the dreaded "sophomore slump" and these events, as well as the good companionship of our friends, did a good job of keeping our spirits up.

Although we're not on the bottom rung of the ladder any more, and that's a great feeling, we know we're still climbing our way up to the top. The Class of 1997 can't wait for two more great years.

SOPHS IN THE JUNIOR SECTION. Missy Feinstein, Amanda Hindlian, Ian Ferguson, Shreyajit Kumar, Chloe Levy, Rob O'Hare, Abbey Haber and Sarah Hindlian eat their lunch in the "junior" section.

WINTER IS COMING. Carlyle Simmons doesn't seem too thrilled about the fact that the cold weather has arrived.

Freshman first impressions of their new "home away from home" are varied

Freshman CLASS

On September 8, 1994, a new group of Weston High School Freshman entered this institution. The first impressions of their "home away from home" for the next four years were varied.

"I was over here a few times when I was in the Middle School," said one freshman, "but now my classes are so far apart, the High School seemed to 'grow' over the summer!" In the Middle School, they did not keep tabs on you as much as they do here. There was no Attendance Office, almost no one in the halls during class periods, and no period when you could just do what you wanted. " There was no weight room in the Middle School," another remarked. Several freshman were pleased to find they had "senior buddies", although by the time the seniors finally talked to them, the freshman had already settled into their new environment.

Yet the class of 1998 is expecting an exciting freshman year. Our student leaders are planning special and interesting events to keep us busy in our spare time.

CROWDED CAF. Tiffany Sherrington and Xana Wolf enjoy the High School and lunch period—they actually have a place to sit down.

UNHAPPY CAMPER? Either Keith Coleman isn't too happy to have his picture taken for the Yearbook, or he isn't enjoying his lunch.

FIRST DAY BLUES. Freshman Julie DiMartino, Jenny Sluka, Taylor McCallum and Allison Lassiter try to look happy on their first day of high school.

BEATIN' THE ODDS

Inexperienced. A rebuilding year. Pretty bad. These were just a few of the comments made regarding the Weston football team this year during the preseason. For a team with such low expectations, they did a pretty good job. Led by tri-captains Tony Baldanza, Brendan Johnson, and Derek Shann, and under first year head coach Al O'Hara, the football team finished a great season with a 7-3 record. The Wildcat offense, after a slow start, took off during the middle of the season, scoring over 40 points twice and leading the team to an exciting and emotional 28-0 blanking of Bay Path. The defense was strong all season long, posting three shutouts and staying at or near the top in Eastern Mass.

The football season came with many changes, most notably the lights at Weston. In the first game ever played under the lights at Weston, as well as being the season opener, Weston defeated Savio Prep 7-2. After a tough defeat to Concord-Carlisle, Weston won four straight games to improve their record to 5 -1. During the next few weeks, many key players were lost and changes had to be made. Heading into the Thanksgiving day game with Wayland, a shorthanded Weston team lost to finish at 7-3.

From doing up-downs in the mud, jumping into the pond, and the always entertaining team picture, the Weston football team had not only a successful year but a fun and interesting one too.

STAYIN' ON TOP

The field hockey team had obstacles to overcome this season. Preseason got off to a positive start despite the unexpected retirement of Ms. Butera. Under the temporary supervision of several excellent coaches, Weston's Varsity, JV and Freshmen teams pushed themselves in every drill, knowing that their skill and hard work would produce a winning season.

Under the leadership of captains Danya Reda and Shauna London, and new coach Mrs. Gorman, the girls were able to pull together and finish their season as DCL champions with an unbelievable 14-2 record. Highlights for the team include coming back to beat Concord-Carlisle for the DCL title, beating Acton-Boxboro twice, and being the first field hockey team ever to play under the lights on John Proctor Field.

The team entered the Divison 1 state tournament with determination, going on to win their first two games against Framingham and Reading. Unfortunately, a loss to Chelmsford in the North Sectional Finals ended their season prematurely.

This group of thirty girls had a great season and with many key talented players returning next season, the team's future looks promising.

BROTHERHOOD

LEFTMIDDLE. All Star goalie Brian Coburn makes another save utilizing his first base experience to assure that the ball is stopped.

BELOW. Seniors Lysak, Kung, Wysocki, Bando, Spellman and Carr can't wait to start their final game as Wildcats. Looks like we need to buy Carr a warm-up and burn Wysocki's hat.

The Boys' Soccer Team failed to qualify for the state tournament, but were close, thanks to the new MIAA criteria and their coach Jim Murphy, a.k.a., the Murphdog. The talented and sometimes unappreciated team finished with a disappointing record of 5-9-4.

The team played well, having many exciting games and quite a few highlights. Among these: a tie with GBL champions Somerville, who were ranked sixth in the state at the time; a 1-1 tie with the ever-dominant Acton-Boxboro; and a 5-0 season ending romp over Lincoln-Sudbury. The Wildcats ended up playing in eight games decided by one goal margins.

There were six seniors whose experience and familiarity with each other made the season a success-despite the dismal record. Led by tri-captains, Mike Wysocki, Mike Carr and Toru Bando, the boys had a lot of fun, learning much about themselves and each other. On the field, Peter Kung and Wysocki led the defense in keeping the opposition in check while Bando outscored everybody in the DCL. Seniors Kent Spellman and Stefan "Mr. Holland" Lysak also played well for the 'Cats.

Congratulations to the five players who received individual awards. George "Little-spaz" Smith, Mike "the Shadow" Carr and Lysak earned second team DCL All-Star stature. Carr also won the prestigious Tucky Gee award. Toru "the Dook" Bando and Brian Coburn were selected to the DCL All-Star team.

While next year's team should not have difficulty in matching the on the field performance, they certainly will miss the bonding they shared with the exiting seniors.

JUST HAVIN' FUN

Under the strong leadership and guidance of Coach Franco Bruno and Captains Kathleen De Guzman, Kate Ryan and Lori Clark, the Girls' Soccer team qualified for the State tournament for the fourth year in a row. Once in the tournament, the girls easily defeated Amesbury and fell to #1 seed Lynfield in a hard fought battle.

Thanks to the new lights on John Proctor Field, we were able to have two more night games. During both of these games the team played inspired soccer and almost beat DCL champions Lincoln-Sudbury. The team proved it was one of the best in Division III as they clearly dominated Lynnfield, but ran out of time with Lynnfield up 1-0. The thrilling win against Acton-Boxboro also showed the determination and skill of the team. The girls came back from a 5-4 loss in the first half of their season to upset them 1-0 in the second meeting between the two teams.

There are many memories from the season that will never be forgotten: Our crazy outfits(are you really wearing your clothes backwards?,) Tanos, the pool party, Mr. Walker's house, jumpin' juniors, little chicken, twenty-five minute runs, scrimmages with the guys and many more.

The team would like to thank Sarah Heine for coming to almost every game showing her support. Thanks Sarah-We love you. Without returning seniors Kate, Kathleen and Lori the team will be at a great loss, but the returning players will strive to carry on the winning tradition.

BELOW. Freshman starter Annica White pushes the ball up the sideline, looking to center it to a streaking teammate.

GO THE DISTANCE

This past season, the infamous harriers finished with many more impresive achievements. Under the tutelege of Coach Duncan, in his farewell season, the boys strove to a 7-1 record and a 2nd place finish in the challenging DCL, losing only to powerhouse Lincoln-Sudbury. The girls team placed 6th in their league meet and had a respectable season, despite the win to loss ratio.

After their 2nd place finish in the DCL, the boys' team went on to fall just short of the Massachusetts State Class Division IV Title, getting edged out by Seekonk. Two weeks later, in the All State Meet, they came in 6th in a pool of 16 elite teams.

The team had a lot of fun(contrary to the beliefs of many who aren't able to see enjoyment in running distances of three or more miles everyday) especially in anticipation of the State meet, where the boys, led by captains James McCowan and Michael Treadway, dyed their hair red. McCowan hardly caused a second look with his new color, but many other runners were the showcase of the school for the next week.

A special congratulations to McCowan and Treadway, who in their last meet of the season, and McCowan's last race at the Reservoir in a Weston uniform, beat a course record of 15:43 set in 1985 with an astonishing time of 15:37 on the 2.93 mile course.

The girls' team had a great turnout this year, and a fun, memorable season. Captains Karen Yen and Elizabeth Saunders did a great job inspiring their teammates to run their hardest, knowing that competing in the DCL was no easy task.

Both teams have many runners returning next year and will surely have productive seasons.

BRINGIN' IT HOME

With the addition of coaches Kenny "Jack" Martin and "Gameday" Leon, plus a new cast of freshman waterboys to support the seasoned senior veterans, the Widcat boys' team entered the season with high expectations. Ranked among Divison III's top five teams, the 'Cats dropped their first game, but then managed to reel off thirteen straight victories in stylish fashion.

Led by Coach Guido and senior quad captains Mike Carr, Khadj Edison, Peter "Skills" DeLea and Derek "Shiz" Shann, an extremely valuable Butch Tavares, and with the help of four talented freshmen–Paul Kurkjian, Walden Barzey, Evan Carlson and Billy Martin– Weston achieved heights that have not been reached in years. The thirteen game streak included Guido's first win over Newton South and the Natick Holiday Tournament, in which Weston boasted the MVP, DeLea, and two members of the tournament team, Carr and Barzey.

The streak moved Weston into the top ten in the Globe state poll, and second in the Division III poll. A tough loss to Acton-Boxboro left our record at 15-2, but we got only stronger, winning the DCL for the first time in 37 years.

With a second seed in the Divison III tounament, our second round loss to a much bigger Swampscott proved disapointing, but the Wildcats can hold their heads up high after a great season.

ALL OUT EFFORT

Once again the Lady Wildcats have played their hearts out on the court. Though there may not be any "W"'s in the stats, the team fought in every game and showed improvement as the season progressed.

Coach Beevers and Coach Dimare demanded tough defense and aggressive offense. Through countless exhausting drills, the 'Cats learned to stay on their toes and always look at the basket. Early in the season, Weston came within three points of St. Clements, then suffered disappointing losses to Milbury and Mt. Alvernia in the Watertown tournament. Injuries plagued the team, with the whooping cough and the flu also taking their toll. Strong games against Newton South and Bedford inspired us, but in the end, we always ran out of time.

Co-captain Claire Forgacs provided strong leadership at point guard. Her hard drives and skillful dribbling earned her a spot on the DCL All Star team. Co-captain Stacey Millen was always full of encouragement, firing many short jump shots. Seniors Amy Antman, Liz Freedman and Kitty O'Hare provided experience, good defense and endurance. Kelly Johnson and Annica White were always ready for a rebound. Emily Kattef kept the jump shots rolling in, and Anya Lakner and Lisa Bagley always kept us entertained.

The seniors may be graduating, but the Wildcats have a lot of heart on both Varsity and JV. Look for a stronger team next season.

THREEPEAT

Led by tri-captains Alex Becker, Margaret O'Brien, and Carl Valle, the Red Tide enjoyed yet another successful season. The team was sparked by the efforts of sprinter Pipes Greene, breast-stroker Kurt Ward, and butterflier Tug Winston. A strong contingent of junior boys also helped to carry the Tide to its third straight Division II State Championship. E–Man Job and Matt Flaherty led the individual medley and sprint freestyle events, while Brendan Wright and Jeff Levine manned the distance crew. Through the efforts of senior Dan Lazzari, sophomores Ben Lee and J.P. Perry, and freshmen Dave Antman, Andrew Hastings and Dane Callow, the Tide finished with a super 13-3 record and won all three relays at the State Championship Meet.

The girls played a major role in the scores at the most important meets, placing an impressive fifth at this year's E–Mass Sectional Meet. Senior Lindsey Prickett led the distance crew of Caitlin Wysocki and Becca Schlowsky. Freshman superstar Jen Sluka broke the 20 year-old breaststroke record and led sophomore breaststrokers Abbey Haber and Laura Rabin to a successful season. Senior Amy Connelly and freshman Suzanne Schaubert played key roles in all three relays, teaming with Sluka and O'Brien to set two new school records in the 200 and 400 freestyle relays.

The Tide owes much of its success to hard work and the dedication of Coach Foley, Coach Valle and Diving Coach Ric Denehy. Thanks for another incredible season!

SWEATIN' IT OUT

When you have a team like the one we had this year, the season goes by way too fast. We had a great time led by a great guy, Coach Baldanza. Coach surrounded himself with a terrific staff consisting of Coaches Sullivan, Munnell, and Thomas. They all worked hard to teach us a lot about wrestling and ourselves. The team consisted of wrestlers who were always there and ready to work hard. This year was a great success–the whole team bonded into a family while posting a 14-1 record.

Our only loss at the hands of Wayland, we dominated the rest of the DCL and finished high in all the regular season tournaments. Our post-season went well as we finished third in the Division III Sectionals and fifth in the State Tournament.

The team was led by captains Tony Baldanza, who won the Division III Tournament in his weight class, and Jack Ryan who finished fifth in the All State tournament. Captains Eric Gleason and Mike Baldanza added to the team's success to the finish, aided by seniors Byron Knight, Johny Bentley and Jimmy Menzoian.

Our team enjoyed a great season, not from simply winning, but from learning how to work for something you want. We experienced true comradery and can only hope that each season that follows can be as fun and successful as this one.

Next year the returning wrestlers should have a great year led by a great group of Juniors. We should have no problems if we continue the hard work.

The Winter Track Team, led by boys' captains James McCowan, Michael Treadway, Shariff Rudolph and girls' captains Elise Estes, Karen Yen and Danya Reda, had a tremendous season.

The boys team compiled an impressive record and boasted many outstanding performances. The boys distance medley, comprised of Treadway, McCowan, Rudolph and John Wilson broke Class D records. Treadway turned in an incredible performance at the state meet, smashing the Weston High one-mile record. A Strong performance was turned in by Brendan Harley in the hurdles as well. The highlight of the boys' season was their second place finish in the Class D meet at Harvard.

The girls' team was sparked by five strong second place performances and a first place finish, to place third in the Dual County League meet. Led by Alaina Giampapa in the hurdles, Karen Yen in the two mile, LeeAnn Sechovicz in the 1000, Danya Reda in the 600, Elise Estes in the mile, Melissa Feinstein in the pole vault and Natalia Kennedy in the shot put, the girls completed the season with many impressive performances. Sonya Cottle turned in solid performances as well. A special congratulations to Feinstein, who placed second in the national high school competition at the Carrier Dome in Syracuse in the pole vault.

Overall, the team had a wonderful season thanks to the hard work and dedication of Coach Monz and Coach Kelly.

Stacey Millen and Aimee Halloran did an excellent job selling and drawing ads.

A Star BEYOND

"An oak tree and a rose bush grew,
Young and green together,
Talking the talk of growing things–
Wind and water and weather.
And while the rose bush sweetly
bloomed
The oak tree grew so high
That now it spoke of newer things–
Eagles, mountain peaks and sky"

Dear Mike,

Where to start? How do you put a sibling relationship of sixteen years into a mere paragraph? I can't begin to imagine what it's going to be like not sitting across the dinner table from you, or not fighting over what's on TV, or not searching for uglier pictures of you. Who will you find at college that makes a better grilled cheese than your favorite sister? For so many years, Mike, I'm sure we drove each other crazy, but thanks for being there. You broke Mom and Dad in and made a lot of things easier for me to deal with.

I can't believe that you're going to college, and I don't know what to say or what advice to give. All I can say is good luck, make us proud, and I'll miss you.

Love Always, Caitlin

Good Luck to all Mike's friends in the future and keep in touch. Thanks for letting me hang out with guys. I'll miss you all!!!

JOSHUA

Be gentle
Be kind
Enjoy life
Be tolerant
Keep a sense of humor about yourself and the rest of the world.
Work hard, but play hard too.
Believe in yourself,
Act on your convictions,
Be generous with your love.
Call home once a week. —Unknown

You are appreciated and greatly respected.
We think you are one of the greatest people we've ever met.

Love always,
Kimberly and Nicole

Back Where it All Began

The Class of '95 has enjoyed a super senior year. Once diplomas have been awarded and yearbooks signed, we will take with us memories of four great years together.

Tony Baldanza, Mike Baldanza and Jack Ryan are happy to be graduating this June. They have all had outstanding high school careers.

Mike Carr and Joanne Kampoures spend a few minutes together at the end of the day.

ALL SAID AND DONE.

Jon Shumaker, Mike Carr and Josh Greene have enjoyed four great years at Weston High. As seniors, they spent time bonding with Class of '95 and will miss hanging out together next year.
